ABOUT LITERACY AND YOU

How did you hear about the learning centre?

Have you had training in tutoring adults?

Yes

No

If yes, when and where did you receive the training?

What does adult literacy mean to you? Please give your own definition.

What interests, personal qualities and/or professional skills do you have that would help you in your role as a tutor?

What do you think are some of the challenges facing an adult learner?

How do you think your background may be similar to, or different from the backgrounds of individuals you will be tutoring?

In the tutoring program, you may be working with people who have values, beliefs and life experiences that are different from yours. What challenges may arise in this situation? How would you deal with these differences?

Do you have any preferences in regard to your learner such as gender, age, or literacy level?

Other comments:

* Please note that all volunteers will be asked to fill out a criminal record check form and provide a copy of two pieces of ID at the time they start volunteering.
* Once we receive the completed application, your name will be put on our waiting list and we will contact you when a suitable position becomes available. Thank you for your interest in APNLC.
